

Article submission Suggested Template

ARTICLE TITLE
16 pt, bold, centred or left-aligned

Introduction
12 pt, regular, 1.5 line spacing
Introduce the topic, question or issue. Begin with an engaging opening and establish why it matters.

Body 1: Context
Present the background and explain the key concepts or issues in accessible language.

Body 2: Evidence and Findings
Develop your central idea using research findings, examples, field observations, data or relevant sources.

Body 3: Implications and Perspectives
Explore what the findings mean, how they relate to people and their environments, and what questions or challenges they raise.

Conclusion
Bring the article together by highlighting its central message and wider significance. Avoid simply repeating the introduction.

References / Sources
List all research papers, reports, books, articles and websites cited or used. Include hyperlinks, DOIs or publication details wherever available.Include author, title, publication or organisation, year, and URL or DOI where available.

Ensure that facts, statistics, quotations and claims drawn from other sources can be traced to their original source.

Use one consistent citation style throughout.